CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY MEN'S BASKETBALL 2011-'12 SYNOPSIS

Under the guidance of veteran coach John Dore, the 2011-12 Concordia Stingers men's basketball team ran up an overall win-loss record of 24-9 and spent nine of 14 weeks ranked in the CIS Top 10.

The Stingers won their fifth Quebec championship in eight years with a dominating 77-47 victory over the UQAM Citadins before a capacity crowd at Concordia Gym on March 3. The Stingers were in control from start to finish. Concordia was up 21-14 after the first quarter and 33-20 by halftime.

"I was happy and a little nervous when I heard we were going to face UQAM," said Stinger guard Kyle Desmarais. "We'd beaten them nine times in a row. It's hard to beat a team three or four times in a row never mind 10 times. But we did and it was a highlight of the season for me because everybody on the team contributed to the win."

Concordia also knocked off the pesky Laval Rouge et Or by a score of 66-65 in the conference semifinal on Feb. 29.

This is the 19th conference title for the Stingers since Concordia University was formed 37 years ago. It is also the 13th regional title for the team since Dore took over the program in the 1989-90 season.

Concordia ran up a 23-6 record against CIS competition, including a 16-2 run through the RSEQ.

The Stingers spent part of the preseason battling NCAA teams, including University of California Santa Barbara and Vermont. It was a challenging venture with just one win and three losses. But the team thoroughly enjoys the experience, and it helps prepare the Stingers for the CIS season. Coach Dore has a tradition of seeking out top

U.S. teams – Duke and Connecticut in 2006 and Brigham Young in 2009, for example – as part of his season schedule.

The current edition of the Stingers is very similar to the one that competed at the national championship in 2011 where there was a hard-fought 73-66 loss to the Carleton Ravens in the opening round followed by a 76-65 defeat by the Dalhousie Tigers on the consolation side.

There are 10 returning players in the lineup, including all five starters. There's also an extra year of maturity.

"We're a year older and wiser," said Desmarais, a third-year all-star guard. "Last year we were a little in awe when we got to Halifax. This year we know what to expect and we will be ready for it. The biggest difference between last year and this year is the distribution of points. Decee Krah and Evens Laroche have really stepped up and taken on a lot of the load. We have so many more threats now."

Concordia had the top three scorers in the RSEQ. Desmarais led the conference with 13.9 points a game, while fifth-year guard Krah was second with 13.4 and fourth-year forward Laroche was third with 13.3.

Desmarais came up big in two key games down the stretch for the Stingers. He scored on a layup at the buzzer to beat the McGill Redmen 62-61 on Feb. 18 and he sunk a free throw with two seconds left to give Concordia the 66-65 win over Laval in the semifinal.

The 2011 RSEQ MVP represented Canada at the World University Games and Pan-Am Games in 2011. Because of his international travel and an early ankle sprain, Desmarais missed several preseason games. Interesting to note he was not in the lineup for four of Concordia's nine losses this past year.

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY MEN'S BASKETBALL 2011-'12 SYNOPSIS

Laroche, who was named the 2012 RSEQ MVP, is the Stinger who matured and picked up his game the most this season

"His biggest asset is his athletic ability," said Dore. "He has the ability to play all five positions and has for us this year. He scores inside and outside. He rebounds. He defends. He can do it all. Every time he is on the court he makes positive things happen."

A year ago the Stingers' defence might've been a cause for concern, but that's definitely not the case anymore. Concordia leads the CIS in steals per game with 11.6 and also in turnovers forced with 22.1. The team held its Quebec opponents to 64.3 points a game which is the third best average in the CIS.

"After the way we played against UQAM in the championship, I definitely consider us a defensive team," Desmarais said. "Our defence is huge and our best offence comes from our strong defensive play. We are intense and aggressive and you can't prepare to play against that."

An older, more focused, deeper and more defensive-minded Stingers are at the nationals in 2012, and they are definitely looking to improve on last year's results.

On the Final 8

Decee Krah

"We know what to expect this year. Last year we drew Carleton in the opening round and we gave them a game. We learned from last year. This year we will have different results."

Evens Laroche

"We are very motivated. Last year we won the provincial championship, but didn't make it through the first round at nationals. This year, our goal was to win Quebec, go back to nationals and do a lot better. We really want a rematch with Carleton."

On the St. Francis Xavier Matchup

Decee Krah

"St. FX, they just run. They are pretty big. They have a lot of versatile big guys. They have two guys that do most of the scoring. We have to keep them in check."

Kyle Desmarais

"St. FX has good players and good size. They have some veterans. They have a good coach which is a big asset. They like to get out in transition."

"I've been watching a lot of tape and they are beatable. It will be a very good matchup. They beat us earlier in the year and we know why and have been able to correct it."

"My first reaction when I heard about the draw was 'Oh Boy!' But the more I watched them play on tape, the more I could see their weaknesses. I like the draw."

"If you cheer against me and my team, it only motivates me to go harder."

On the Concordia Stingers

Decee Krah

"We're very defensive. We grind it out and we're a running team."

"We have to rebound well. We have to take care of the ball and we have to play good defence. If we do that we will put ourselves in a good position to win."

Evens Laroche

"I think the difference between this year and last year is our team chemistry."

Kyle Desmarais

"A year of experience makes a big difference. Last year was the first year most of us were together. I was new. It was a whole new team and a new style of play for all of us. When it came to nationals, we were just happy to be there."

"This year we're older. The biggest difference is there's more distribution in scoring than last year. Decee Krah and Evens Laroche have really stepped up and taken on some of the load. It's hard for other teams to lock down on us. We have so many threats out there."

"After the way we played in the Quebec championship, I would say we are definitely considered a defensive team. Our best offence comes from our defence."

"The biggest differences this year are our defence, our intensity and the fact that our scoring is spread out."

"You can't prepare for our intensity and aggressiveness. It's one of our biggest strengths."

JOHN DORE - HEAD COACH

2012 RSEQ Coach of the Year

In 2011-12 John Dore led the Concordia Stingers to another regular season championship. The team finished in first place in the RSEQ with a 14-2 win-loss record and spent nine of 14 weeks ranked in the CIS Top 10, peaking at the No. 8 spot.

On offence, Dore's team averages 74.1 points a game which ranks first in Quebec. Defensively, the Stingers allow just 64.3 points a game which is second best in Quebec and third in the CIS. The Stingers' scoring margin is +9.8.

His athletic and aggressive team leads the CIS with 11.6 steals a game and turnovers forced with 22.1 a game. Concordia is also one of the top rebounding teams in the country, averaging 41.1 a game which ranks seventh in the CIS.

With the 2012 RSEQ championship, it is the fifth conference title in eight years.

At Concordia University, where he has been the head coach since the 1989-90 season, Dore has taken the Stingers to the national championship tournament 13 times. He won the national crown in 1990 and placed second in 1995 and 2005.

In the fall of 1995, he was named University Coach of the Year by the Foundation for Quebec University Athletics. He has been named the outstanding coach in the Quebec Student Sports Federation (now RSEQ) conference on 13 occasions, most recently in the 2012 season. In 1991, he was named Men's Basketball Coach of the Year by the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union.

Dore's involvement in basketball doesn't stop at Concordia University. He has been at the helm of several national teams, including Canadian entries at World University Games (Universiade) and the Maccabiah Games. As well, he was president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches of Canada and an international committee member of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, U.S.A.

Despite all his commitments, Dore also values any time he can spend with young children and teenagers. Perhaps it is because of his 14 years as chairman of the Physical Education Department at St. George's High School and his work with the Quebec provincial team and the Vanier College Cheetahs. Whatever the reasons, Dore never passes on an opportunity to help out at a basketball clinic. In fact, he has his Stingers volunteer at several each season. He encourages all his players to work with youth and has seen many of his current players and graduates get involved with groups like the YMCA and Sun Youth, and take on coaching duties at local high schools.

Misc.

- Coach John Dore says Evens Laroche is the most improved player on the 2011-12 Stingers. He flew under the radar in 2010-11, but was the RSEQ MVP this season.
- The Montreal native comes out of the Dawson College program where he won a CCAA title in 2007. He was named to the second all-star team at the college nationals. He was also named the MVP in the final game.
- He won the CCAA national championship in 2007 along with current Stinger teammates Kyle Desmarais and Frank Fiola.
- Evens' younger brother Hernst, a point guard, is in his fourth year with the New Mexico State men's basketball team. He finished his undergraduate schooling and is now working on a Masters degree at university. New Mexico State has enjoyed a good season and is expected to reach the NCAA Final 64.

Reflections from Evens Laroche

I'm a leader. I love to influence people by talking and by showing my dedication.

I'm older now. I'm more confident. I'm taking better care of myself. I rest, I stretch and I get my body ready to perform. I also push myself more.

The captains – Decee (Krah) and Kyle (Desmarais) – have done a good job at bringing people together this year. They've organized a lot of activities to keep us close as a group.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

He is Mr. Everything for us – our heart and soul. His biggest asset is his athletic ability. He has the ability to play all five positions and has for us this year. He scores inside and outside. He rebounds. He defends. He can do it all. Every time he is on the court he makes positive things happen.

KYLE DESMARAIS

Misc.

- Desmarais represented Canada on two occasions this past season. He was a member of the men's basketball team at the Universiade in Shenzhen, China in August. He also competed with Canada at the Pan-Am Games in Guadalajara, Mexico in October.
- In 2011-12, Desmarais missed a few games in the preseason because of his commitments to Team Canada and also a tender ankle. Four of Concordia's nine losses came while Desmarais was out of the lineup.
- Desmarais only started playing basketball at 15 years old. He was a long shot to make the highly-respected Dawson College program in his first year, but beat out a returning player for a spot on the roster. In his third year at Dawson, he was named MVP of the Quebec CEGEP AAA league. He also earned CCAA all-Canadian honors.
- He is one of three Stingers that were on the Dawson College championship team in 2007. Evens Laroche and Frank Fiola were also part of the sensational season.
- Central Connecticut State University offered Desmarais a scholarship after his third year at Dawson. He suited up for the Blue Devils in 2008-'09. He wasn't happy in the program. Desmarais thought the head coach didn't use him well and that he wasn't developing as a player. He left after one year and sat out the 2009-'10 season.

Reflections from Kyle Desmarais

"I'm the point guard, so guys look to me to set things up and run things from an offensive stand point.

"I'm more of a lead by example type guy. I don't like to talk a lot. I go out and play hard and let people follow my lead.

"On the court, I'm an extremely intense and competitive person. Off the court I'm a calm person."

When the game is on the line who should have the ball?

"Me. I have the confidence and my confidence comes from the extra work I put in outside of practice. When these moments happen I go into an even deeper focus. It's hard to explain."

Comments from head coach John Dore:

Kyle is a winner. He's made big shots in big games. He made the free throw with two seconds left to beat Laval in the semifinal. He drove to the basket and beat McGill (Feb. 18) at the buzzer.

We rely on Kyle for his leadership on the court and for his ability to make good decisions whether it be taking the ball to the hoop or passing for the open shot. He can also be a shutdown defender when he wants to be.

Misc.

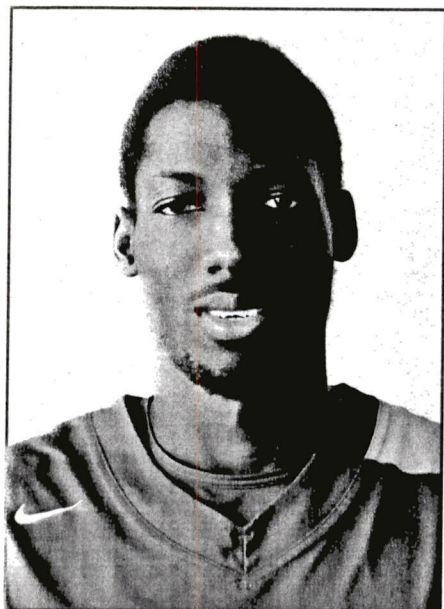

- Krah is a big part of the Stingers' success over the last two seasons. He has really grown into his role as a leader, demonstrating maturity and a great commitment to the game. He's become a more complete player, using his athleticism to score in bunches and shutdown some of Quebec's biggest offensive threats.
- Krah achieved a personal milestone in the last game of conference play versus the Laval Rouge et Or. He scored 15 points to reach the 1000th point mark. This number includes only points scored in five years of regular season RSEQ play.
- In 2009-10, Krah logged a lot of time as the Stingers' point guard. The last two seasons, with the arrival of Kyle Desmarais, he was used exclusively as a shooting guard.
- Krah along with forwards James Clark, Evens Laroche and Kafil Eytayo are the Stingers with the most experience at the CIS Final 8. It's their third trip to the nationals – 2009, 2011 and 2012.
- At Concordia, Krah works hard at a variety of jobs. He has helped out in the snack bar and worked on promotions for the Stingers. He currently oversees all the music and deejays at athletic events and supervises the intramural basketball league at Concordia.
- Krah was an honor roll student at Cathedral High School in Hamilton. He was also captain of the 2006-07 basketball team. Cathedral won the Hamilton-Wentworth District Catholic School Board championship in 2004 and 2006.

There was concern that he could've broken his ankle, but the diagnosis from the emergency room doctors was just a bad sprain. He watched the rest of the tournament from the sideline on crutches.
- Eytayo had no experience with organized basketball before arriving at Concordia four years ago. Coach John Dore saw a lot of potential in him and agreed to keep him with the team and to work on developing his raw talent.
- He arrived in Canada in December 2007. He had never seen snow before. He says it was "a harsh welcome." Despite the snow, he says he finds Montreal to be a quite welcoming city.

Misc.

- Eyitayo is from the Republic of Benin, a country in Western Africa. It borders Togo to the west, Nigeria to the east and Burkina Faso and Niger to the north. Its size is just over 110,000 km² with a population of almost 8,500,000. Its capital is the Yoruba founded city of Porto Novo, but the seat of government is the city of Cotonou. It is a French-speaking nation. The economy of Benin remains underdeveloped and dependent on subsistence agriculture, cotton production, and regional trade.
- He is studying civil engineering. After he graduates and gets some experience in his field, he'd like to return home to "make a contribution to my country." He loves talking about new concepts in engineering.
- He has the respect of his teammates for a number of things, but there's no doubt they all consider him the best dancer on the team.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

Kafil has tremendous athletic ability. He is only in his fourth year of basketball. He's very active on the glass. He's a good rebounder and our leading shot blocker.

Athletic Awards and Honors:

2011 - RSEQ all-star – second team

2008 - QSSF all-rookie team

Misc.

- Clark is coming back from a wrist injury suffered in the first half of the year. He was in a cast for seven weeks and out of action for nine weeks. The fifth-year forward missed the Dalhousie Rod Shoveller Tournament during the holiday break, including the St. FX game (loss 94-78), and three RSEQ regular season conference games.
- In 2010-11, he averaged 27.3 minutes a game, but fighting back from the injury cut his playing time to 11.6 minutes this season.
- Clark along with forwards Kafil Eytayo and Evens Laroche, and guard Decee Krah are the Stingers with the most experience at the CIS Final 8. It's their third trip to the nationals – 2009, 2011 and 2012.
- Clark comes out of the highly respected Eastern Commerce High School basketball program in East Toronto where the Saints won four straight OFSAA titles from 2002-'05. They failed to advance to 2006 provincial tourney, but brought home a silver medal in 2007 – all under the guidance of coach Roy Rana.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

James is coming back from a wrist injury. He's just been back in form for the last week or so.

He's a deadly shooter from the 3-point line on in.

We need him to rebound for us to be successful.

2012 - RSEQ all-rookie team

Misc.

- Blake was one of the top recruits coming out of the Quebec CEGEP AAA league in 2011. He is a graduate of the highly respected Vanier College Cheetahs program.
- Last year, he scored 41 points in the Quebec championship game to give Vanier an 86-82 win over Ste. Foy. He was named MVP of the Quebec championship tournament.
- At the CCAA tournament, he scored 34 points in a 102-85 win over Lethbridge in the gold medal game and was named tournament MVP.
- As a rookie, Blake started in four of 16 RSEQ games and did a good job coming off the bench. He averaged 9.1 points and 19.4 minutes of playing time. With the graduation of fifth-year guard Decee Krah, Blake is projected to move into the starting shooting guard position next fall.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

He's met all our expectations. He scores, he shoots 3s and he's proven to be a good defensive player. I think he's going to score a lot of points for us over the course of his career and he's going to be a leader. He's very knowledgeable and has a great feel for the game."

- 2nd in the RSEQ in offensive rebounds per game – 2.6
- 6th in the RSEQ in rebounds per game – 5.8

Misc.

- Brisebois started in 15 of 16 RSEQ games for the Stingers. As a rookie in 2010-2011 he started all 16 Quebec conference games.
- In 2009-10, he was captain of the John Abbott College Islanders of the CEGEP AAA league in Quebec.
- Brisebois shares a birthday – March 25 - with two very famous Concordia Stingers alumni – women's hockey great Cammi Granato, an Olympian and Hockey Hall of Famer, and André Bolduc, a receiver and special teams player who spent six years in the CFL.
- Brisebois lists UFC fighter Georges St-Pierre as one of the athletes he most respects. St-Pierre has a Stinger connection. The UFC welterweight champion trains with the Concordia wrestlers as part of his preparation for bouts. Brisebois also names Kobe Bryant as an athlete he admires.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

Misc.

- Garner only went to the line 21 times so he doesn't register in the statistical leaders in the RSEQ. But he shot 81 per cent when he went to the line which would rank him fourth in the Quebec conference.
- Garner comes out of the John Abbott College program in the Quebec CEGEP AAA league. He was a captain for the Islanders in 2008-09. He won a bronze medal at the CCAA championships in 2007.
- He was a team member of Canada's entry in the 2009 Maccabiah Games. He won a bronze medal.
- Garner is a musician who plays guitar and piano. He is proud of his music accomplishments, including conquering Bach's Cello Suite No. 1 on the guitar. His most prized possession is his acoustic guitar.
- He is an all-round athlete who competed in baseball, hockey, water polo, soccer and swimming before entering Concordia.
- Garner was valedictorian at John Rennie High School in Pointe Claire, Que. He won John Rennie's Principal's Award as the outstanding student at the school.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

Taylor is one of the most improved players on this year's team. He's playing more and more minutes for us. He scores inside. He shoots well and is a good free throw shooter. He is a big body and a strong presence in the post for us. He takes on the other team's biggest post player.

- 2010 – Concordia Basketball Rookie of the Year

Misc.

- On a team that has at least nine players that can start, Moussignac has five starts in 16 RSEQ games to his credit.
- Moussignac comes out of the Champlain-St. Lambert College program. The Cavaliers went to the CCAA nationals twice in his time, winning a silver medal in 2009 and a bronze medal in 2008.
- With his language studies, Moussignac can now speak five languages – English, French, Creole, Spanish and Italian.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

He is a tremendous athlete. He's very quick up and down the court. He's tremendous defensively.

Jean-André is a true point guard. He's our best player when it comes to getting into the paint.

Misc.

- The Stingers have emerged as a team that shoots the 3 well, averaging about 6.5 a game. Tajfel is one of the best 3-point shooters on the team this season along with Decee Krah and rookie Jerome Blake.
- Tajfel comes out of the prestigious Dawson College basketball program.
- A superb athlete, he is one of the Stingers who does well in John Dore's infamous two-mile, 12-minute run. However, he admits it's one of the hardest things to do.
- A big baseball fan, Tajfel loves talking about the sport. He admires Derek Jeter as an athlete. His most prized possession is a Hank Aaron game-used bat.
- Tajfel's teammates considered him shy and quiet when he first joined the Stingers. Now he's considered the guy that makes the team laugh. He's earned respect for his sense of humor.
- He lists getting into Concordia's respected John Molson School of Business as one of his proudest accomplishments.

Comments from head coach John Dore:

Morgan is coming back from surgery in December. He missed the Rod Shoveller Tournament (including the St. FX game) over the holidays and some playing time in January.

He is a deadly 3-point shooter. We need him to come in and play aggressively on defence in order for us to have success.

- He is one of three Stingers that were on the Dawson College championship team that won Quebec CEGEP AAA and CCAA titles in 2007. Evens Laroche and Kyle Desmarais were also part of the sensational season.
- A superb athlete, he has the best vertical leap on the team.
- Like all the Stingers, Fiola detests coach John Dore's infamous two-mile, 12-minute run. However, he is one of the athletes that conquers it quickly.
- Fiola has volunteered at the YMCA where he helped out with basketball and supervised the gym.

Misc.

- People always talk about Moore's athletic prowess. He and Frank Fiola have the top vertical leaps on the team. But Moore is in a class by himself when it comes to bench press. He can do 16 reps at 225 pounds. If he tested at last weekend's CFL combine, he would have had the third best results out of the 23 defensive backs, receivers and quarterbacks that were at the event.
- Moore was with the Concordia football program for a couple of years. He was a quarterback and was dressed for eight games in 2008. He backed up Liam Mahoney who is now a receiver with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.
- He is accomplished in three sports – basketball, football and track and field where he excels in discus, javelin and high jump.
- Moore was a captain and GTA all-star at Philip Pocock SS.
